APPENDIX I – DISCIPLINE CHECK

- (a) For each applicant, the HR designee will submit a written request to the Office of Professional Review (OPR) for a disciplinary history for the previous 18 months from the posting closure date and a criminal background check.
- (b) An applicant will be deemed “not qualified” if:
 - 1. They received discipline resulting in suspension(s) of a total of four or more days for a single infraction within the previous 18 months;
 - 2. They are de-deputized or have received discipline as outlined in this Appendix at the time of the appointment to the transfer or promotional position;
 - 3. They have a criminal conviction involving a crime that reflects negatively on their character, honesty or integrity;
 - 4. They have been found to be untruthful by OPR, a court of law, or an administrative body; or
 - 5. They have received discipline resulting in a demotion or a recommendation for demotion or termination.
- (c) If an applicant has a pending disciplinary case of more than four days, the HR designee will submit a request to the Executive Director of OPR and/or Employee Discipline to expedite resolution. Applicants with open disciplinary cases may continue through the evaluation process, but no applicant will be considered “qualified” for an employment action until a conclusion is reached or the Executive Director of OPR has released a hold due to an ongoing investigation.
- (d) Applicants who fail to meet the minimum disciplinary standard shall be marked, “not qualified” on the Applicant List along with a description. An updated copy of the Applicant List will be forwarded to the Director of Compliance and the Executive Director of HR.
- (e) Appeals of disqualifications based on discipline must be based on an error, not attributable to the applicant, or an error that has already been corrected pursuant to Cook County Sheriff's Office policy. Appeals must be supported with documentation.

APPENDIX II – ATTENDANCE CHECK

- (a) For each applicant, the HR designee will conduct an attendance review. The HR designee shall request:
 - 1. Copies of attendance records from the prior 24 months preceding the ending date of the last pay period from the posting closure date; and
 - 2. An Attendance Analysis Report which includes seniority dates and any attendance violations.

- (b) The applicant will be considered “not qualified” if they have incurred two or more of any of the following unpaid/unauthorized activities within the period under review:
 - 1. No sick time;
 - 2. Absent late call;
 - 3. Absent no call;
 - 4. No vacation time;
 - 5. No personal time;
 - 6. No compensatory time;
 - 7. No holiday time;
 - 8. Unauthorized Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) time;
 - 9. Unauthorized Injured on duty (IOD) time.

- (c) The applicant will be considered “not qualified” if they have incurred seven or more instances of tardiness/docked time within the review period.

- (d) Applicants who fail to meet the minimum attendance standard shall be marked, “not qualified” on the Applicant List along with a description. An updated copy of the Applicant List will be forwarded to the Director of Compliance and the Executive Director of HR.

- (e) Appeals of disqualifications based on attendance must be based on an error, not attributable to the applicant, or an error that has already been corrected pursuant to Cook County Sheriff's Office Policy. Appeals must be supported with documentation.

APPENDIX III – PERFORMANCE EVALUATION SCORE

When bargained for and if applicable, performance evaluation scoring shall be as follows:

- (a) An applicant will be deemed “not qualified” if they do not meet the minimum performance standards by receiving a performance evaluation total score of at least 30 on the most recent evaluation if the max evaluation score is 50. If the max score is not 50, the min performance score will be stated in the posting requirements.
- (b) A performance evaluation score is only applicable when an evaluation has been completed within the prior six months of the job posting date.
- (c) Performance evaluation scoring should only be used if the applicable unit bargained for the evaluation.

APPENDIX IV – PHYSICAL TESTING

- (a) The requesting department head may require all applicants to complete a physical test (e.g., POWER Test, Pre-POWER Test, Physical Ability Test) in order to be considered “qualified” for the SEAM action. If physical testing is required, the requesting department head shall:
1. Determine the specific physical testing standards in advance and ensure that such standards are included in the Posting Announcement. Testing standards will be determined based on the job duties and requirements of the transfer or promotion. The standards will be sent to the Director of Compliance for review prior to inclusion on the Posting Announcement.
 2. Coordinate with the Executive Director of the Training Academy to schedule a date and time for the test. The Executive Director of the Training Academy shall assign Training Academy staff to administer the test.
 3. Notify the Director of Compliance of the dates, times and locations of the test and the Director of Compliance may observe the administration of some or all of the testing at their discretion.
 4. Send a Notification of Examination(s) Packet to each applicant, the Director of Employment Actions and the Director of Compliance via email, and include the following information:
 - a. Name and JDE Numbers of the applicant assigned to take the test;
 - b. Date, time and location of test;
 - c. Testing standard;
 - d. Testing preparation information, if applicable;
 - e. Appropriate attire for test;
 - f. Medical Release Form;
 - g. Detailed instructions; and
 - h. Items that must be brought to the test (e.g., credentials, completed medical release packet).
- (b) If an applicant fails to bring a completed medical release packet, they will not be allowed to take the test, will be marked “not qualified” on the Applicant List and

APPENDIX VI – WRITTEN OPERATIONAL EXAMINATION

- (a) The requesting department head may require all applicants to complete a writing operational examination, weighted at 20% of the total score.
- (b) The Director of Employment Actions will assign a monitor to oversee the testing. Their duties will include:
 - 1. Maintaining a log of the start and finish time;
 - 2. Verifying the applicants identity by checking their Sheriff's Office Photo Identification Card;
 - 3. Ensuring the work is completed without assistance or the use of outside resource materials; and
 - 4. Collecting examinations at the end of the allotted time.
- (c) The examination will consist of at least five operational questions selected from Sheriff's Office and department polices/procedures.
 - 1. Based on the policies and other information provided by the requesting department, the requesting department head will draft no less than 10 operational questions designed to determine the applicant's familiarity with Sheriff's Office operations. The Director of Employment Actions shall select at least five questions for the examination.
 - 2. The Director of Employment Actions will work collaboratively with the Department Head and the Director of Compliance to assure that:
 - a. At least one question pertains to use of force;
 - b. All questions require answers, either in an essay format or multiple choice format;
 - c. Each question contains measurable benchmarks which will, without ambiguity, validate the applicants' subject matter expertise; and
 - d. Operational questions are updated for each employment action to ensure that the questions are consistent with current policy and to maintain the integrity of the examination.
 - 3. The Director of Employment Actions may request assistance from the requesting department head to review, edit and improve the clarity and content of the questions.
 - 4. The Director of Employment Actions will, in confidence, select from the approved list, the final questions to be used on the written operational examination and provide a written copy to the Director of Compliance.

5. The Director of Employment Actions will be responsible for the scoring of all written exams. Scoring may be delegated to one or more content experts who are qualified to assess the applicant's responses.
 6. Applicants can receive up to 100 points for the written operational examination.
 7. Each question will include measurable benchmarks.
 - a. The minimum number of correct answers/benchmarks for the entire examination must be 20.
 - b. The value of each benchmark is determined by dividing the total possible points (100) by the total number of benchmarks.
 8. The Director of Compliance will audit a minimum of 5% of the written operational examinations to assure that consistent and objective standards have been applied to the grading of the examinations.
- (d) The Director of Employment Actions will enter the total points of the written operational examination on the Applicant List and forward a copy to the Director of Compliance.

NOTIFICATION AND SCHEDULING OF OPERATIONAL EXAMINATION

- (a) The requesting department head will determine if an operational examination is required.
- (b) The Director of Employment Actions shall notify all applicants who meet the minimum qualifications as set forth in this Appendix and the Posting Announcement shall be notified to report for an operational examination, via email. The Director of Employment Actions shall ensure that there are at least 14 days from the date the notification of disqualification letters are emailed and the notices are sent out in the event a timekeeping error or other error is discovered.
 1. The Director of Compliance shall be copied on communications to applicants who are on approved leave of absence or not currently in an active-duty status.
- (c) The notice/email will be sent by HR no earlier than 14 calendar days after the dissemination of disqualification letters to both the applicant and Director of Compliance.
- (d) The notice/email shall be in the form of a memo and contain:
 1. The date, time and location of the operational examination;

Cook County Sheriff's Office
Sheriff's Employment Action Manual (SEAM)

SEAM Appendix

2. The appropriate attire for the operational examination;
 3. Specific documents/credentials the applicant will present at the operational examination;
 4. Notification to provide documentation to prove eligibility for education, training and military service.
- (e) Applicants who will be unable to attend the operational examination due to previously scheduled time off must notify the HR designee of their inability to attend within three business days from the date the notice was sent advising of the date of the interview so an alternative date may be provided, if possible. Requests to reschedule received after the three-day period will not be considered. If HR is contacted within the three-day period and the process is still ongoing upon their return to work from the scheduled time off, the applicant will be ranked into the applicable list.
- (f) Applicants on a medically-related authorized leave of absence are allowed to participate in a transfer or promotional process if they meet the other qualifications within this appendix. The HR designee shall send their notice of interview via certified mail. The applicant may also be contacted by telephone. The HR designee is responsible for maintaining records of all communication.
1. If an employee is on an approved leave, it is their responsibility to contact the Director of Employment Actions at ccso.employmentaction@ccsheriff.org to advise the Sheriff's Office of their current duty status so that the Applicant List can be updated to remain current. Upon return, the employee shall again notify the Director of Employment Actions.
 2. Only applicants in active-duty status at the time of the transfer or promotion will be so transferred or promoted. All applicants to be transferred or promoted must be able to complete the essential functions of the position they are moving into with or without a reasonable accommodation at the time of the transfer or promotion.
- (g) Applicants who fail to appear for scheduled operational examinations will be considered "disqualified" and so noted on the Applicant List.
- (h) The Director of Compliance shall:
1. Receive written notice of the final schedule at least 48 hours in advance;
 2. Be copied on communication to applicants who are on approved leaves of absence; and

- (e) Applicants who will be unable to attend the writing sample due to previously scheduled time off must notify the HR designee of their inability to attend within three business days from the date the notice was sent advising of the date of the writing sample so an alternative date may be provided, if possible. Requests to reschedule received after the three-day period will not be considered.

- (f) Applicants on a medically-related authorized leave of absence are allowed to participate in a transfer or promotional process if they meet the other qualifications within this appendix. The HR designee shall send their notice of writing sample via certified mail. The applicant may also be contacted by telephone. The HR designee is responsible for maintaining records of all communication.
 - 1. If an employee is on an approved leave, it is their responsibility to contact the Director of Employment Actions at ccso.employmentaction@ccsheriff.org to advise the Sheriff's Office of their current duty status so that the Applicant List can be updated to remain current. Upon return, the employee shall again notify the Director of Employment Actions.

 - 2. Only applicants in active-duty status at the time of the transfer or promotion will be so transferred or promoted. All applicants to be transferred or promoted must be able to complete the essential functions of the position they are moving into with or without a reasonable accommodation at the time of the transfer or promotion.

- (g) Applicants who fail to appear for the scheduled writing sample will be considered "disqualified" and so noted on the Applicant List.

- (h) The Director of Compliance shall:
 - 1. Receive written notice of the final schedule at least 48 hours in advance;

 - 2. Be copied on communication to applicants who are on approved leaves of absence; and

 - 3. Receive and adjudicate appeals by applicants who fail to appear for scheduled writing samples, provided such an appeal is received within 48 hours of the missed appearance.

APPENDIX VIII – INTERVIEW

GENERAL INTERVIEW GUIDELINES

- (a) The requesting department head will determine if an interview is required.
- (b) The Director of Employment Actions shall create a script for panel members which will include:
 - 1. A greeting and introduction;
 - 2. Verification of the applicant's identification and credentials;
 - 3. Explanation of the interview format and process;
 - 4. Specific instructions about the interviews; and
 - 5. Advisement to the applicant that they will be notified in writing whether they have been selected, their rank on the Applicant List, and total score.
- (c) The panel interview will consist of two tiers of questions: introduction/background questions and personal attribute questions. The requesting department head may also request operational questions to be included as part of the interview process.
- (d) The Director of Employment Actions shall create a list of introductory/background questions.
 - 1. The questions will be designed to solicit factual information about the applicant's employment history, previous assignments, military experience, training and recognition.
 - 2. The questions presented by the panel shall be consistent for every applicant.
- (e) The requesting department will create at least 14 personal attribute questions to be used in the interview. The Director of Employment Actions shall select seven personal attribute questions for the interview.
 - 1. The attribute questions shall be relevant to the position, avoid any language that might imply discriminatory intent, and aid the interview panel in determining the overall suitability of the applicant.
 - 2. Questions presented at panel interviews shall be consistent for all applicants.
- (f) If included in the interview process, the requesting department will create at least 14 operation questions to be used in the interview. The Director of Employment Actions shall select seven operational questions to be used in the interview.

Sheriff's Employment Action Manual (SEAM)

SEAM Appendix

3. No person may participate in or observe an interview without first receiving SEAM interview training.
 4. The requesting department head will work with the Director of Employment Actions to create interview panels. The number of panels convened shall be determined by the number of applicants with the objective of ensuring that all applicants are interviewed in a timely fashion.
 5. The Director of Compliance will receive the approved list of panel members. The Director of Compliance may, at their discretion:
 - a. Selectively audit the panel members' understanding of the interview process and address knowledge gaps in advance of the applicant interview.
 - b. Disqualify a panel member and work with the Director of Employment Actions to identify an alternate panelist.
- (b) Duties of the panel members include:
1. Verifying each applicant's Sheriff's Office Identification Card;
 2. Accepting all education, military, outside training, and/or field training (Department of Corrections only) documentation;
 3. Making copies of documents presented for inclusion in the applicants' promotional file; and
 4. Completing all applicant evaluation forms, including a No Political Consideration Certificate (NPCC) at the conclusion of the interview.
 5. Score sheets are completed unilaterally by panel members.
 - a. Panel members are prohibited from any discussion about the applicant or non-verbal gestures that may influence the scoring and/or evaluation of an applicant.
 - b. The applicant's final score is the average of each of the three scores from each panel member.
- (c) If a conflict of interest is discovered prior to or during the interview, The Director of Compliance will be notified.

Cook County Sheriff's Office

SEAM Appendix

1. A conflict of interest is any circumstance that creates a risk that professional judgment or actions regarding an applicant will be unduly influenced by a secondary interest.

2. In the event a conflict of interest is discovered or disclosed, the impacted panel member will be excused from that applicant's interview and replaced with an alternative panel member.

APPENDIX IX – BACKGROUND CHECKS

Background checks may be mandatory based on a requirement already outlined in a SEAM Article.

- (a) When not mandatory as part of a SEAM Article, the requesting department head shall work with the Director of Employment Actions to determine what background checks, if any, will be required for a particular SEAM process based on the specific operational duties of the position. Those requirements shall be outlined in the Posting Announcement.

- (b) Background checks (both required and discretionary) may include, but not be limited to:
 - Discipline check
 - Attendance check
 - Financial background check

- (c) The Director of Employment Actions shall oversee the background check review process and update the respective lists, as appropriate.

APPENDIX X – SCORING AND RANKING OF QUALIFIED APPLICANTS

- (a) Upon conclusion of all interviews, the Director of Employment Actions shall use a score sheet for each applicant and update the Applicant List numerically ranking all applicants from highest qualified (number one) to least qualified (the last position) according to the total number of points from the following categories and percentages:
 - 1. Annual Performance Evaluation Score – 30% of total score, if applicable;
 - 2. Written Exam Part 1 – 20% of total score, if applicable;
 - 3. Written Exam Part 2 – 20% of total score, if applicable;
 - 4. Interview – 20% of total score;
 - 5. Higher Education/Outside Training/Military – 10%.
- (b) If a performance evaluation was completed within the prior six months of the posting date, an applicant will be deemed "not qualified" if they do not meet the minimum performance standards by receiving an annual performance evaluation total score of at least 30 on the most recent evaluation, if the maximum evaluation score is 50. If the maximum performance score is not 50, the minimum performance score required will be stated in the posting requirements.
- (c) If the optional categories in this Appendix do not apply, the percentage points will be added equally to the other required categories to the extent they can be distributed proportionately. The remaining percentage point(s) will be distributed to an applicable category at the discretion of the Director of Employment Actions. The Director of Employment Actions shall ensure that the categories and percentages pursuant to this Appendix are indicated in the Posting Announcement.
- (d) The Director of Employment Actions shall total all scores pursuant to this Appendix utilizing a score sheet, which is tailored to the applicable employment process, and assign an authorized designee to proof the completed score sheet, which will include the NPCC language. Both scorers shall sign the score sheet, which will include the NPCC language. The scoring process identified in this Appendix must be consistent for each applicant.
- (e) If more than one applicant receives the same score, those applicants will be placed on the Applicant List in order of seniority.
- (f) If more than one applicant receives the same score and/or has the same seniority date, those applicants will be placed on the applicant List in order of their JDE Number. The applicant with the lowest JDE Number will be placed first.

APPENDIX XI – NOTIFICATION OF DISQUALIFICATION AND APPEAL PROCESS

- (a) All notifications of disqualification shall be sent via email. The Director of Employment Actions shall notify each applicant deemed “not qualified” using the Notification of Disqualification Template Letter including the general reason for disqualification and referencing the applicable SEAM Article.
- (b) The Director of Employment Actions shall send a copy of each letter to the Director of Compliance and the Executive Director of HR.
- (c) The Director of Employment Actions shall ensure that there are at least 14 calendar days from the date the notice of disqualification letters and the interview notices are disseminated.
- (d) In the event the Applicant is disqualified due to an attendance violation or discipline, the Applicant may appeal the disqualification by contacting the Director of Compliance in writing and submitting any supporting documentation within seven calendar days of the date specified on their disqualification letter.
- (e) The Director of Compliance shall contact Payroll, HR, the Legal Department and/or the Office of Professional Review (OPR) as soon as practical. Any reversal of the applicant’s status must be supported by documentation. The final determination should be made as soon as practicable.
- (f) Appeals must be based on an error, not attributable to the applicant, or an error that has already been corrected pursuant to Cook County Sheriff’s Office policy.
- (g) If the applicant is deemed “qualified” after the appeal, the Director of Compliance will submit their findings in writing to the applicant, the Director of Employment Actions and the Executive Director of HR.
- (h) The Applicant List will be corrected to reflect the reversal of the dismissal and the Director of Employment Actions will ensure that the applicant receives an interview notification.

- (h) The HR designee will obtain verification that the applicants have a valid FOID and a current weapons qualification. De-deputized applicants will be deemed "not qualified" and removed from consideration.

- (i) The HR designee may institute additional background checks at the recommendation of the respective department head.
 - 1. If the HR designee has questions regarding the results of the additional background checks, the applicant will be notified to report for a second-round interview to clarify the results. The second-round interview will be conducted by the respective department head and individuals designated by the respective Executive Office Chief.

- (j) If disqualified for any reason listed above in this subsection, an applicant may file an appeal within two business days of the disqualification, by contacting the Director of Compliance in writing and submitting supporting documentation

- (k) The HR designee shall create a final Applicant List containing the names of all selected applicants who remain "qualified" after the final evaluation process.

- (l) The final Applicant List, including scores, will be forwarded to the Chief of Staff, the respective Executive Office Chief, the promoting department head and the Director of Compliance.

Note: The following is not applicable to the processes in SEAM Article H.

- (m) The Chief of Staff should, at their discretion, select up to 25% of the qualified applicants out of the total number of positions to be transferred or promoted regardless of their rank on the final Applicant List.
 - 1. If the total number of positions to be promoted is less than five but more than one, the Chief of Staff may select one qualified applicant.
 - 2. The discretionary selection may be rounded up if 25% of the total number of positions to be promoted is five or above.
 - 3. The Chief of Staff may use a discretionary selection with each cycle within the merit board certification.
 - 4. Written justification must be provided to the Director of Compliance citing the rationale for the discretionary selection (e.g., performance, leadership, acts of valor).
